TRINITY'S MILLIONS.

A CHICAGO WOMAN THINKS HER CLAIM IS GOOD

To a Portion of the Wealth of Trinity Church, New York.—A mortgage that dates back to 1792.

New York, Dec. 29.—In the course of the past 100 years, Trinity Church has been brought to the attention of the courts of this city. The plaintiffs in each case asserted that they were the heirs of Anna Maria Bogardus, whose descendants are only numbered by those of Eve. Trinity Church is now begun by Mrs. Emma H. Wallace, of Chicago, one of the descendants, who says she is entitled to one-third of the estate. On Monday last she filed her complaint in the United States court. Most of the plaintiffs in former suits failed to prove their claim. Mrs. Wallace makes an entirely different claim. She asserts that Cornelius Brower, her grandfather, was the owner of the Trinity Church estate. She claims that in 1792, when the church was founded, she was the owner of the estate. She claims that in 1792, when the church was founded, she was the owner of the estate. She claims that in 1792, when the church was founded, she was the owner of the estate.

At Dallas, Tex., on Sunday evening, a daughter of Belle Boyd, the famous Confederate spy, was married to Ray Chambers, who claims to be a British nobleman.

Four young men of Greentown, Pa., procured half a gallon of alcohol at a drug store and drank it all. Two of them died next day. The others are suffering gravely.

Fragments of the remains of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Brown, who were killed in a house fire at Racine, were discovered in a cellar directly beneath the room they occupied.

Michael Wheeler, a veteran shoe dealer at Alliance, Ohio, has been driven into bankruptcy by the defalcation of Samuel Greiner, for whom he was a bondsman.

Henry Austin, of Milwaukee, committed suicide. He was an extensive traveler, having made a trip with Stanley, the explorer. He was United States consul at London.

The police in Philadelphia learned that Mrs. Amelia Gilson has for years been concealing children from their homes and training them to steal. Among her pupils was her 10-year-old son.

Capt. H. H. Morris, the defuncting signal service officer, was on Saturday night in the barracks at Fort Mifflin, Pa., when he was killed by a bullet from a rifle.

Frederick Bergholtz, a member of a party of bicyclists on a new building opposite the Chicago city hall, slipped on some ice and fell. He was killed by a fall from the top of the building.

Suit against the Alton road for $25,000 damages has been commenced by Fred Southern, of Bloomington, Ill., who has just attained his majority. Fifteen years ago his legs were cut off by an Alton engine.

The corporation of the Manufacturers' and Merchants' Institute at Boston may declare it insolvent. It owns a $400,000 building on Huntington avenue, covering eight acres, and it has a floating debt of $75,000.

W. H. Morris, who served four terms in the Missouri legislature, was recently burned to death in his home in Quincy, Mo. He had come to his home to escape, but ran back into the flames to save a valuable relic.

The suspension of the Keynotes Bridge works on the estimated cost of the bridge among the stockholders. Officials who opposed a reduction in wages have resigned, and the work will resume next week if the employees will consent.

The leader of a gang of Chinese murderers, who have been working about New York, has been arrested. He proved to be Tom Sing, who served as officers' steward on the Japanese and Greasy expeditions. His latest work was the butchering of a laundryman at Newark.

Miss Bradley, a school teacher at New Rochelle, Pa., was charged by Patrick Shea with poisoning his son so severely as to cause his death. The lady has been confined to her bed ever since the boy died, and her physician would not permit a warranty for her next to be served. The coroner's jury has found that the lad fell down stairs while she was absent from the room.

HORRORS OF THE EARTHQUAKE.

Latest from Spain—Reverend Shock—Hungary Visited—Wales Shaken.

MADRID, Dec. 30.—There were renewed shocks of earthquake in portions of Andalusia. The terror of the people is so great that the towns are almost deserted, the population being concentrated in the open fields. The greatest disaster reported Monday was the partial destruction of Trigueros, a town of 2,400 inhabitants, hundreds of persons perished being suddenly engulfed.

It is now estimated that the number of persons killed outright, or who have died from injuries received by the destruction of buildings, dwellings, etc., consequent on the recent earthquake shocks, will reach 1,700. Returns from distant towns and cities are not yet all in. Several slight recurrent shocks have tended to relax the nerves of the people, causing anxiety and nervousness. Great suffering prevails in many towns, which is greatly increased by the commotion existing among the officials as well as the people.

A traveler in Hungary. VIENNA, Dec. 30.—A dispatch from Belgrade, Monday, states that the town of Corbina was visited by an earthquake shock and many buildings damaged. Reports unconfirmed are that many people were killed and wounded.

An earthquake was felt at Turin Sunday night. Violent shocks at intervals of an hour were also felt in the city. The inhabitants were greatly alarmed.

Wales Reports an Aque. LONDON, Dec. 30.—An earthquake shock alarmed the people of Wales Monday. Houses were more or less injured, but as far as known no one lost his life.

NEW ORLEANS CAR-DRIVERS' STRIKE.

Refusing to Let the Cars Run—Arrests of Drivers—The Wind-Up.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 29.—The car-drivers' strike has assumed a serious character. All the lines but one have stopped running. The strikers refuse to accept terms that they consider a surrender. This action has not only the sympathy of the general public, but the city government. The city government has ordered the strikers to return to work, and the strikers have refused to do so. The city government has ordered the strikers to return to work, and the strikers have refused to do so.

LATER.—At 9 o'clock Monday night the car lines and drivers reached an agreement. The drivers will get a 10 per cent. increase in wages, and the city government will give them a 10 per cent. increase in wages. The drivers will get a 10 per cent. increase in wages, and the city government will give them a 10 per cent. increase in wages.

PIERRE, DAKOTA, IN FLAMES.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—A dispatch received here Monday night from Pierre, Dakota, says: "The town of Pierre, Dakota, is now a scene of horror. The town is burning up. The thermometer is twenty-five below zero, and the town is burning up. The town is burning up. The town is burning up.

SALE OF THE NEW YORK STAR.

A Case Where John T. McLean, of the Evening Post, Got Lost.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The New York Star was purchased Monday by Mr. W. H. England, who is understood to represent a syndicate including his father, I. W. England, publisher of The Sun, and a paper manufacturer, Samuel G. England, of the New York Evening Post. The price paid is about $170,000. The new owners take charge Thursday. The paper will remain Democratic, but will be independent of any faction. The necessity for the sale grew out of Mr. John T. McLean's illness and the death of Mr. Sidney P. Nichols, a large stockholder in the concern. It is stated on good authority that Mr. John T. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, had the right to sell the paper, and that the syndicate was organized to buy it.

Agitating the Homeless Canal Scheme. ROCK ISLAND, Dec. 30.—An address in the Homeless Canal scheme was given Monday night by a man who called himself "The Homeless Man." He was a man of about 40 years of age, of medium height, with dark hair, and a mustache. He was dressed in a dark suit, and a white shirt, with a dark tie. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was speaking for about an hour, and his audience was very large. He was speaking for about an hour, and his audience was very large.

The Chicago Fraud. CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—The participation in the election fraud, was on Monday postponed by United States Commissioner Hoyne until Wednesday, owing to the absence of two material witnesses for prosecution.

Bismarck Reconsidering. LONDON, Dec. 30.—A telegram from Genoa states that Prince Bismarck has taken lodgings at San Remo, a small town on the Mediterranean near that city.
